About Work of Walls, Pune

At Work of Walls, they are a young and a quality driven team of individuals. Their mind starts ticking when approached with a design problem. They brainstorm and debate until a cornerstone in the design of a project is found. Creating something that's never been explored before excites them. They want their work to resemble a work of art not the complex, abstract type of art, but the type, which changes and resembles with the client. Walls being the most versatile space bounding element, have given them this name - WORK OF WALLS. A name that doesn't define any particular style, but inspires to push the boundaries of design
